Virginia Osteopathic Medical Association's 2018 Spring CME Conference The Great Wolf Lodge - Williamsburg, VA April 12-15, 2018

Course Description

The VOMA Spring CME Conference is designed to update primary care physicians on current information regarding important medical topics and rapidly changing therapeutic areas. The emphasis of this program is on practical and useful information for a clinical practice.

Course Learning Objectives

- Discuss the clinical presentation of common disorders seen in primary care
- Utilize current advances in the diagnosis and treatment of these common problems
- Identify highly relevant medical findings that may change how a primary care physician currently practices
- Interact with and question renowned speakers on a variety of common clinical scenarios from medical practice

Lodging

A limited number of reduced-rate rooms have been reserved at the Great Wolf Lodge and at a nearby hotel in Williamsburg. Please note this is Spring Break week and the rooms will fill up quickly.

Conference Information

The program schedule is subject to change. A complete program book will be provided to attendees upon arrival at the conference.

CME Credits – D.O.'s

The Virginia Osteopathic Medical Association is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians. The Virginia Osteopathic Medical Association designates this program for a maximum of 24 AOA Category 1-A credits and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician's participation in this activity.

VOMA Continuing Medical Education Policy

Evaluation data will be compiled and provided to VOMA. Comments and suggestions regarding program content, location and other program specific details will be considered when planning future activities. Grievances regarding program administration and reporting of AOA CME credits will be handled on an individual basis. Participants with grievances that cannot be resolved will be sent to the AOA CCME.

Disclosure Statement

It is the policy of the VOMA to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its educational programs.

All participating faculty are expected to disclose to the participants any real or apparent conflict of interest related to the content of their presentations.

Who should attend?

This conference is designed for family physicians and other primary care providers. FOR A LIST OF SPECIALTY CREDITS PLEASE CHECK THE VOMA WEBSITE.
